Observations..

By UDELL

Next week, your observer will be on vacation and will not be here to remind you to cast your vote Tuesday, May 12. Remember that, bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote. Cast your vote for the candidates of your choice. Give a little thought to this all-important election and above all be sure and vote.

In this column last week, we stated that in a letter from Heber Lerner, which was actually from the Attorney General, that servicemen could not vote by absentee ballot. According to the Attorney General, there is no provision for servicemen applying for absentee ballots 30 days prior to an election as in County and State elections, but there is a provision that anyone who will be out of town on election day, which is Tuesday, May 12, due to his occupation, may, within 12 days prior to the election, request an absentee ballot. Naturally, a serviceman can do the same according to the Democratic Municipal Executive Committee.

Don't forget to buy your ticket for the big dance for the benefit of the King's Daughters hospital Saturday, May 9 at the Top Hat. If you want to buy your Mother's Day cake, the Hospital Board is also sponsoring a cake sale on Saturday, May 9.

Wednesday, April 29, at 4:00 p. m. at Hotel Reed, a delegation of "Good Willers" from a New Orleans area of the Chamber of Commerce, were received by the citizens of Bay St. Louis. These delegates are making a handshake of the Gulf Coast.

This week, Bay High on Friday night, and St. Joseph Academy on Saturday night, will stage their annual May Festival. They will begin promptly at 8:00 p. m. The public is invited to attend. Sam Vaughan and Miss Norma Johnson will reign at Bay High and Miss Carroll Turner and David-Treutle will rule over the S. J. A. festivities.

St. Clare's Church at Waveland will hold its annual church fair on July 4th and 5th. Plans are being formulated to make this fair one of the best.

City Commissioners Lader and Glover report they have had a conference with officials from the District Engineers office of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, Mobile, Alabama in an effort to alleviate the drainage situation along the L & N Railroad Company right-of-way in the Third and Fourth Wards by constructing a drainage outlet from St. Charles Street from R. R. Avenue to the Beach. The L & N officials were contacted relative to providing a culvert across the L & N tracks in the proximity of St. Charles Street thereby affording drainage outlet on both sides of the tracks. At the request of the R. R. officials, additional elevations and profiles are being drawn up to provide additional information for the Railroad Company.

PMA Announces Important Facts

Plans are to start immediately on preliminary work to prepare for possible acreage allotment and marketing quota programs on the 1954 crops of wheat and cotton, should such production and marketing controls be required. The advance work would include collecting and compiling basic data on individual farm production and on many other factors which must be considered.

In announcing the plan to start preparatory work, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson emphasized that the final decision on 1954 controls for the two crops has not been made.

"We will wait until the latest possible information (about the supply and prospective demand situation) is available before the decision," he said, "but prudent administration demands that we start getting ready now. If we wait longer, and then find that we cannot escape controls, it will be too late to do the necessary preliminary work."

For wheat, legislation directs that the decision and proclamation must be made not later than July 1 for marketing quotas, and July 15 for acreage allotments. For cotton, the decision and proclamation on both marketing quotas and acreage allotments must be made not later than October 15.

Secretary Benson explained that while the Department wants to avoid controls if possible, "the existence of mandatory price supports on these crops at 90 percent parity levels may, without restriction, produce a huge build-up of Government investment in loans and inventories, and the danger of large ultimate losses."

If wheat marketing quotas are proclaimed, a national grower's referendum must be held not later than July 25. Two-thirds of the growers voting must approve quotas before the quotas may be made effective. If farmers fail to approve, by two-thirds, they will be subject only to acreage controls, but price support levels will drop to 50 percent of parity. Wheat farms total about 2.1 million.

A cotton referendum would have to be held not later than December 15. There are an estimated 1,850,000 cotton farms.

Special guests were Miss Irma Joan Lee, Lions candidate for the Hancock County "Miss Hospitality" contest set for June 13 and Mrs. Marie Heitzmann, first nominee for the 1953 Lions Club award, "Citizen of the Year."

Program guests were Joseph Benvenuti, Horace Kergosien and John Scalfie, the three candidates for Mayor of Bay St. Louis at the May 12th primary.

Mr. Kergosien spoke along the same lines and also referred to his report, willing to stand on it 100%. Kergosien also stated that he was absolutely independent, and deplored any political organization, whether it was in or out of office.

He praised the cleanliness of the campaign and stated that he has not heard any detrimental remarks about any of the three candidates.

Mrs. C. V. Bowman of Pensacola, Fla., visited Mrs. Betty Higginbotham last week.

The Bay St. Louis American Legion, Clement R. Bontemps Post No. 139, has announced its candidate for "Miss Hospitality" for the Hancock County contest, set for June 13.

The Legion committee picked Geraldine Anne Martin of 342 St. John street Bay St. Louis, Miss Martin, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Martin, is a brown-eyed, reddish brown beauty, 5 ft. 8 inches and 125 lbs. A native born girl, Geri graduated from St. Stanislaus Homecoming in '51, after having served as Maid of Honor for 1949 and 1950. Miss Martin was also voted "Fairest Girl in School" her last two years at St. Joseph's.

Her sorority was Delta Sigma Chi, and since her graduation, she has been employed at Gulf Chevrolet Company as bookkeeper. Geri attends Our Lady of the Gulf Church and claims that tennis is her favorite sport. After taking a course in home economics, she says that her domestic future is still on the uncertain side. Geri has one sister at home, Mrs. Gloria Mills.

The entrance of Geraldine Anne into the Miss Hospitality contest brings the entries to two, as the Lions presented their candidate, Miss Irma Joan Lee, last week.

Other civic organizations are urged to pick their candidate as soon as possible, so that Hancock County will be well represented in this civic enterprise.

MRS. THIBEAUX CHAIRMAN OF CANCER FUND DRIVE

Mrs. Wilmer Thibaux director of the American Cancer Society's 1953 crusade here, is chairman of the joint fund-raising and educational campaign in Hancock County which opened April 13.

The goal for this year is $938.00. In 1952 contributions were a total of over $1,000 less. The national goal for 1953 is $12,000,000 an increase of $2,000,000 over last year's goal. However, a total of nearly $16,500,000 was collected in 1952.

"We hope to be able to contribute our full share toward this goal," Mrs. Thibaux said. Naturally we must raise our sights considerably over last year's contributions to do so.

"This can be done either by more gifts or larger contributions," the chairman said. It is my sincere hope that both will ensue.

"The task of directing the drive here, I feel, carries a heavy responsibility. The size of our research program and the extent of service to patients and of our educational activities are governed by funds available. The more money raised, the more lives saved. "When someone asks you to make your contribution a little larger this year, I hope you will think of this."

Mrs. Ike Bennett and Mrs. Roy Baxter are canvassing the Log-town area; Mrs. Coney Weston, Kiln; and George Stetz, Waveland; and there are a number of street workers in Bay St. Louis.

This time of year, strawberries are at their flavorful best. For an easy-to-prepare family dessert, make your Strawberry Shortcake and this topping with Carnation Evaporated Milk. Remember, its double richness and heat-retaining make it specially suitable for baking. And don't forget, Carnation is so rich it whips.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE

Use your favorite brand of packaged biscuit mix calling for milk, but instead of regular milk, use a mixture of 2 parts Carnation Evaporated Milk diluted with 1 part water. Prepare and bake according to package directions. Split biscuits and fill with sliced, sweetened strawberries. Instead of expensive whipping cream, use Carnation Whipped Topping.

CARNATION WHIPPED TOPPING

(Makes 3 cups)

1. Chill 1 cup undiluted Carnation in icebox tray until ice crystals form through the milk (25 to 30 minutes), or place the unopened can on chopped ice for 2 to 3 hours.
2. Pour into bowl and whip until it just begins to thicken (about 1 minute).
3. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice and whip until very stiff (about 1 or 2 minutes more).
4. Fold in 2 tablespoons granulated sugar.
5. Serve immediately as a topping for shortcake, puddings, etc., or many desserts.

MILKING MACHINES

Do not let electric power failures force you to milk by hand. Intake manifolds on cars, trucks and tractor engines will supply enough emergency vacuum to operate two or more milking units. Vacuum brake adapters, which are available at most auto parts stores and agencies, can be installed permanently on cars and trucks. The place to attach the adapter is located between the carburetor and intake manifold.

Some tractors have intake manifolds especially equipped with an opening and shut-off valve for operating milking machines.

Drive the car, truck or tractor up close to the milking barn and run a piece of regular milking machine vacuum hose from the fitting on the intake manifold to the nearest stall cock or milker pipeline. Then proceed with the milking just as you would do with electric power.

Milking machines with magnetic pulsators cannot be operated in this way without special equipment.

PIGS

Good feeding to stimulate milk flow of nursing sows is important because this is the time when young pigs make the cheapest gains.

When the sow is brought back to full feed 10 days after farrowing begins self-feeding a mixture that contains 10 pounds of ground shelled corn, 20 pounds of ground wheat or oats and 10 pounds of protein supplement.

If ear corn is fed in place of the ground shelled corn, provide the sow with ear corn and feed four to five pounds of the other ground feed per day.

A simple mixture and plenty of clean drinking water should be kept before the sow at all times.

ORCHARDS

When fruit trees are over-loaded, thinning the fruit is profitable. This year many peach trees will need such fruit thinning. It will help to increase the size of the fruit, improve the quality, prevent breaking of limbs and help control insects and diseases.

Thin the fruit as soon as possible after the normal "drop" and before the seeds begin to harden. This occurs six to eight weeks after full bloom. Fruits will be three-fourths to one inch in diameter at this time.

Do the thinning by hand. In this way you will get a more uniform spacing and will be able to remove deformed and defective fruits. However, jarring and shaking the trees is fairly satisfactory. After thinning, pick up the removed fruits and destroy them. This will help control insects and diseases.

Many peach trees have set double this year. Where you find two peaches growing together, pick them off.

Feathers should be thinned to an average of four to six inches apart, apples and pears six to eight inches apart and plums two to four inches apart.

IRRIGATION ON PASTURES
If you plan to buy an irrigation system for your pastures, remember irrigated pastures can use two to three times as much fertilizer as unirrigated pastures.

Irrigation will pay not only during the summer, but it can also

HOME AGENT NOTES

by Miss Sarah Weaver, Home

On Friday, April 24, the topic to be discussed on the Mississippi State College Farm and Home program will be chrysanthemums for the Home and Garden.

Dr. M. C. Twigg, of the Mississippi Experiment Station Horticulture Department, will discuss the experimental work being done at State College with 57 varieties of chrysanthemums. Through this research work, he is trying to determine the varieties of chrysanthemums best adapted for flowering in pots and those best for the flower garden.

This flowering pit mums will be on display in the college greenhouses around Mother's Day.

If you should receive a flowering chrysanthemum as a pot plant on Mother's Day, Dr. Twigg's advice is to enjoy it in your home for a couple of weeks and then plant it in your garden. Cut the plant back to within a few inches of the ground at the time you plant it. It should grow and flower again in the fall.

If you have chrysanthemums in your yard and haven't already done so, you should divide the clumps during April. This division each year keeps the clump from becoming too crowded. If they aren't divided the plants will be weak and spindly and have few flowers.

Plant chrysanthemums where they will not be shaded for more than a third of the day. They may be planted any time after all danger of frost is over until first of June. Set them 18 to 24 inches apart.

Sowbugs or pillbugs are about a half inch long and are dark gray and oval. They usually live under stones or in the soil. They are not often seen when they are in the soil, but they are often seen when they are on the surface. They sometimes become a household pest when they infest in large numbers in the basement.

They may feed on the roots and tender portions of plants, as carnations and sweetpeas. They sometimes become a household pest when they infest in large numbers in the basement.

extend the grazing period from Spring pastures by as much as a month or six weeks.

One of the big payoffs is in fall and winter grazing. Irrigation will help get these crops up and growing early. In many cases, you will be grazing these when many unirrigated pastures are not even up.

However, before buying an irrigation system, make sure of your water supply. See your local county agent for information on irrigation. Get his advice, the advice of members of the Agricultural Extension Service agricultural engineers, and the advice of company representatives. Before you buy, make sure that you have all the available information.

MARKING IRIS FOR MOVING
If you plan to move more or re-

If you plan to move or regroup your iris, it is well to mark them while they are in bloom so you can select them by color. Tie a piece of colored string on the plants while they are in bloom. Use a different color of string to indicate each color of iris.

Leave the plants in their present location long enough to store food, then dig them and move them to the new location.

Many an expensive garment or household fabric and everyday children's clothing have been spoiled by pressing over stains with a hot iron or plunging the item into hot wash water. A little cool water sponging, or soaking before washing, may save such waste. Stains that often respond to cool water treatment include those made by most non-greasy foods, or beverages, fresh garden foliage that may contain tannin mud and perspiration. For best success in removing stains start while the stain is still fresh—before it dries if possible.

Junior-Senior Prom

The annual prom of St. Joseph Academy was held Saturday, April 18 in the gymnasium.

The theme of the prom, written in bamboo letters across the stage, was "Song of the Islands."

One bleacher was decorated as a pineapple grove; in between the bleachers a palmetto hut was arranged; another bleacher was an orchid grove.

Each bleacher had life-size figures of Hawaiian girls.

The windows were decorated with the following murals depicting different scenes of Hawaiian life: fish, mural, Hawaiian girls, hut and palm trees with children, mountain waterfall and a heron.

A coconut grove with figures gathering coconuts completed the rear bleachers.

The other bleachers represented a fishing scene with a life-size Hawaiian fisherman throwing a real net; and a mountain waterfall.

The entrance was a hut surrounded by the servers who welcomed the students with Hawaiian leis and memory books.

The centerpiece was a miniature island with a small palm tree. Pushed upon the island was an outrigger overflowing with orchids, hibiscus and other flowers native to the island.

At each table was a centerpiece of a grapefruit with colored pineapple chunks. The place cards were miniature Hawaiian girls with grass skirts holding a pineapple bearing the names of the couples seated at each table.

Each junior and senior received small baby orchids in tiny gift boxes from Hilo, Hawaii.

The beautiful backdrop was a reproduction of a night scene in Hawaii with the moon glimmering on the water near the shore of the island.

At intermission time the president of the junior class, Miss Mary Rose, gave the welcome speech.

The response was given by Miss Patsy Bailey, vice president of the senior class in the absence of Carroll Turner, president, who was unable to attend, because of illness.

Immediately following, Alice Seaford, server, sang the theme "Song of the Islands." Then the eight servers danced a Hawaiian Hula to the song "Lovely Hula Hands."

Music was furnished by the "Sophisticates" from Biloxi.

Since 1900 cancer has risen from eighth position as a cause of death to second place today, the American Cancer Society says.

Always Guarding Your Telephone

DAY IN AND DAY OUT, telephone employees are inspecting and testing equipment and looking for conditions that may cause trouble with your telephone. That's one reason telephones are so seldom reported "out of order" nowadays—only once every two years, on the average. Then alert repairmen have them back in service usually in less than 2 hours... Keeping your telephone always ready to deliver fast, dependable service is a necessary and expensive part of Southern Bell's service to its customers.

A Store Without a Telephone?

Mississippi families can reach more stores, more shops, more services of every kind today, for so many of the approximately 151,000 new telephones we've installed in the state since 1945 are in business establishments.

12½ Million Dollars This Year for New Telephones in Mississippi

Keeping pace with Mississippi's demands for new telephones is a big job, but we've been making progress... In the past 7 years we have more than doubled the total number of telephones in the state... at a cost of approximately 72 million dollars... and we're still working hard at it.

What's a Telephone Worth?

Sometimes one call may be worth more than the cost of a year's telephone service... and service becomes more valuable as additional telephones are installed in your community.

Congressional Sidelights

by Congressman Wm. M. Colmer

THE FIRST HUNDRED DAYS

To a generation brought up on excitement and fanfare of the New-Fair Deal the first hundred days of the Eisenhower Administration have seemed relatively tame. The bold strokes of bank closures, party purges, and Supreme Court packing of Roosevelt and Truman are missing, and this impression of leaderless drifting on the part of the new administration. Faltering has been apparent in the agriculture program, and in other fields the Administration is obviously feeling its way along. However, the public opinion polls, as of now, show that the country as a whole is still backing the new President. What the situation will be in another hundred days remains to be seen.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE

There was certainly no quarrel, even from the most partisan quarter, with President Eisenhower's open challenge to Russia on the question of peace in his recent full dress foreign policy speech. For the second time the President has carried the ball in the Administration's new positive policy in dealing with Russia. While couched in diplomatic terms, it was a nevertheless sufficiently forthright for the Masters of the Kremlin, as well as the rest of the world, to understand. It was a bid to Russia to put up or shut up, in the parlance of the man on the street, on the question of peace.

Our own views on what Russia will do are too well known to the readers of this column for lengthy repetition here. If Russia should decide, for reasons of its own, that there should be peace in Korea—which we still seriously doubt will happen—the stepping up of trouble in other areas, Indo-China, Iran, or Germany, may be expected. Nevertheless, the fact still remains that this country has now seized the initiative from Russia in his unfortunate Korean situation and is in more favorable light with the rest of the free world. We must now prepare for our next move if we are to hold that advantage when the Russians prevent a real peace as may be expected.

—Mr. and Mrs. Reed Stanley Welfer of Atlanta, Ga., were house guests of the Wilson Wittelsburgers last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Rau and son, Paul, spent the weekend at their home on Dunbar avenue.

Among those shown at the dedication of the Ball Park Sunday were Mrs. Walter J. Gex, second from left, who was named "Queen of the Ball Park," John McDonald, fourth, who presented the park to the City of Bay St. Louis; Mayor Carver, Monsignor Gmelch, Commissioners Glover and Ladner, a member of the local team, Rev. Father Hugh Taylor, sponsor and originator of the program.

Baptists Plan Youth Services

The week of April 26 through May 2 has been designated as Youth Week by the congregation of the First Baptist Church.

The young people of the church will be in complete charge of services for the week. Ted Terry, who surrendered his life to the gospel ministry several months ago, will be youth pastor. Mr. Terry will fill the pulpit at both services. Sunday, delivering his first sermon on that day. Assisting him with ushering, music and other services, will be other young people of the local church.

Mike Shelton will be in charge of the regular prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30. Mr. Shelton, a 1952 graduate of Bay High and a student of Mississippi Southern college, recently surrendered his life to the ministry.

Mississippi Power Co. Application for Aerial Crossing of Bay

The Mississippi Power Company, Gulfport, has made application to the office of the District Engineer, Mobile, for an aerial crossing over the Bay of St. Louis between Henderson Point and Bay St. Louis.

They are planning on constructing an aerial electric transmission line, about 180 feet north of the new bridge, 500-foot span at the drawspan of the bridge with an 80-foot vertical clearance; 400-foot spans thereafter with a 60-foot vertical clearance.

The plans may be seen at the office of the District Engineer, Room 3, building, 2301 Grant street 2, Mobile. A copy of the plans will be forwarded upon request to anyone interested at a cost of 50 cents per sheet.

The decision as to whether a permit will be issued must rest primarily upon the effect of the proposed work on navigation. The Corps of Engineers cannot undertake adjudicate conflicting claims to property rights affected by the work.

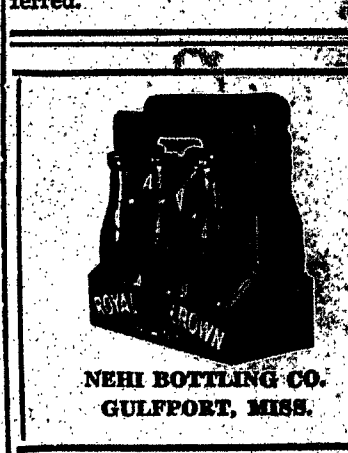

—Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Benvenutti were Mr. and Mrs. Benvenutti Jr., of Algiers and Mr. and Mrs. George Castillon of New Orleans.

OUR STATEMENT

We have given our full time and effort toward giving you an HONEST AND EFFICIENT Administration. We have tried to hide nothing, and we have Minutes and Records to speak for every act done. We invite your inspection of them and before you allow anyone to criticize our activities in any manner, bring them before us. We are your public Servants and we stand ready to refund any of our acts at any time.

As in every community, there are selfish groups and individuals seeking power and control for his or their PERSONAL gain at the EXPENSE OF THE PUBLIC. This is the group you may look to spread last minute falsehoods and half-truths in a frantic effort to prejudice and fool the public. WATCH FOR IT!

OUR PROMISE

If you re-elect us as your Commissioners, we shall work wholeheartedly with the Mayor you elect for the continued progress of Bay St. Louis. We promise to continue our policy of HONESTY, EFFICIENCY AND FAITHFULNESS TO THE TRUST IMPOSED IN US.

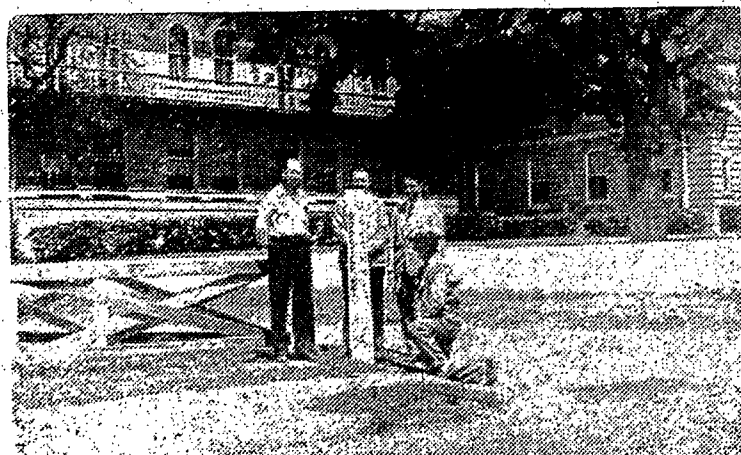

We shall strive to secure for the City better Water and Sewerage; complete our paving program of every street in the City; secure a Comprehensive Zoning of the City; keep taxes down; work for securing new industries; do everything toward causing a reduction of fire insurance rates; and such other improvements that will improve our City. We have worked the past 4 years as a TEAM. We humbly request that you re-elect us on YOUR TEAM!

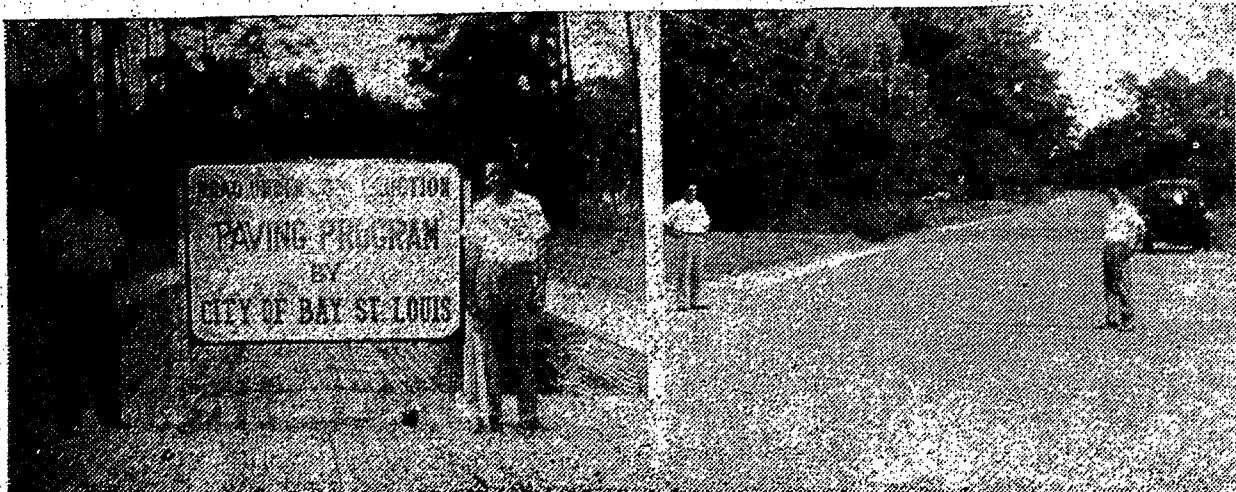

Pictured above are photos of the new 1250 by 300-foot sand beach; tennis court; playground on Washington Street; playground on Dunbar Avenue and Julia Street; and playground on the corner of Union and Second Street; making a total of five parks, playgrounds and recreational facilities constructed by the present administration with NO BOND ISSUE OR INCREASE IN TAXES.

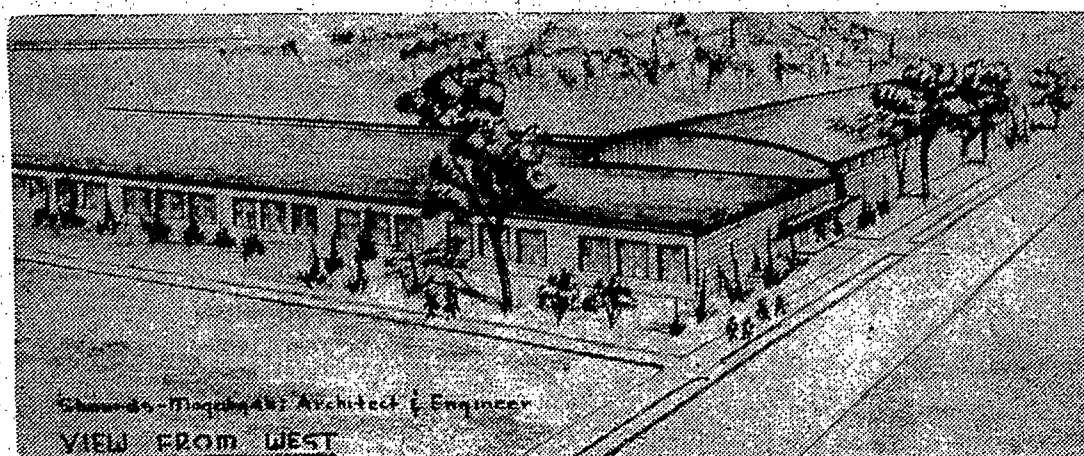

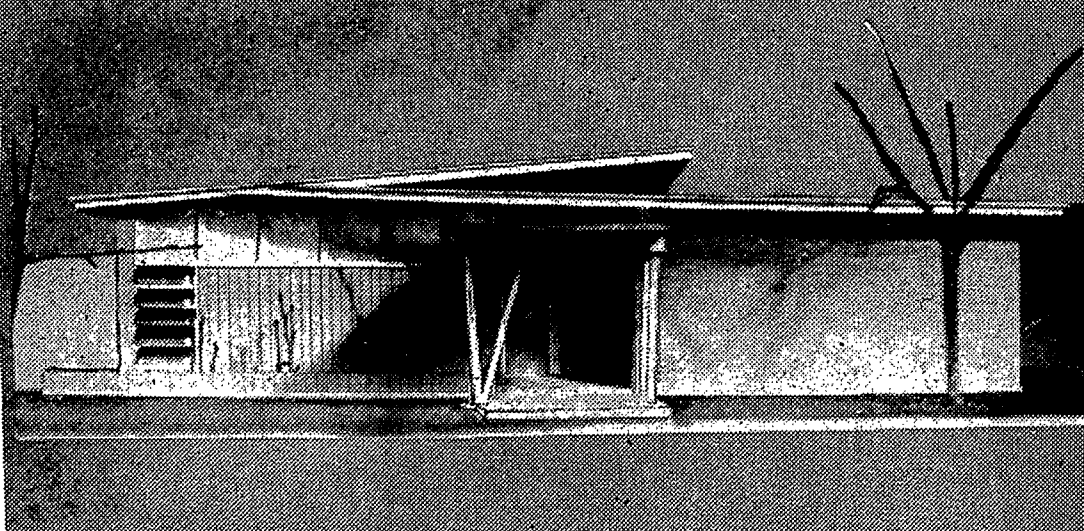

The above photos show the drilling, testing and completion of a new 8-inch water well and pump installed in the northern section of Bay St. Louis. This well to furnish 750-gallons per minute, with 60-pound pressure, thus doubling the water supply of Bay St. Louis. This improvement, too, was made WITHOUT INCREASE IN TAXES OR ANY BOND ISSUE.

The above photo represents the street-marking program, instituted and being accomplished by the present administration; said street markers being of permanent concrete structure. This program is also being accomplished with NO INCREASE IN TAXES AND NO BOND ISSUE.

Above are photos of the street-paving program instituted and completed by the present administration, the streets above Dunbar Avenue, St. Charles St., and Citizen Street. Under the paving program, the present administration hard-sur these streets double-coated, and 11 seal-coated. In the City, making a total of 30 streets with 19 of these streets double-coated, and 11 seal-coated. (Incidentally, this paving program was completed only two years after the present administration took office, and not just previous to the forthcoming election) - WITH NO INCREASE IN TAXES AND NO BOND ISSUE.

The above photos show a proposed six-class room addition to Bay Hi School, and a proposed addition of four class rooms, a lunch room and a gymnasium to Valena C. Jones School. Construction to begin immediately on each of said projects. The above improvements total $152,000.00, of which the tax payers of Bay St. Louis will pay $75,000.00, WITH NO INCREASE IN TAXES, but by a bond issue requested by more than 75% of the qualified electors of the City.
